

New Proposed Definitions

Definition
Excavation, Stripping and Grading means a use where the removal of vegetation, re-grading, or the excavation of material on a Site occurs in preparation of a future Development or subdivision.
Mining and Extraction means a use where minerals, petroleum, sand, gravel, and ores are extracted from the ground.
Natural Vegetation means a use where an area is identified for the conservation, preservation or restoration of natural features, biodiversity, and ecological processes. TEXT BOX: Typical examples include forests, grasslands, landscape buffers and trails for appropriate passive recreation activities, rare species habitats, wetlands and other water bodies, and woodlands.
Public Art means artwork planned with the specific intention of exhibition within the public realm.
Recreational Equipment Storage means a use where a Site is used for the storage of Recreational Vehicles and other seasonal equipment such as boats, Trailers and all-terrain vehicles.